

Sample Family Camp Schedule

Friday

After 3pm – Arrive at motel for check-in and unpacking.

6pm – Family Camp orientation

7pm-10pm – Shabbat dinner and program at camp. (Attire for boys/men: blue pants and white shirt, attire for girls/women: dress or slacks). During the evening program you will have the opportunity to Israeli folk dance late into the night, so try to have your children sleep on the drive to camp.

Saturday

9am – 2pm – Programming at camp including flag raising, breakfast, camp tour, morning activities and programs and a buffet lunch. (Feel free to have an earlier breakfast at the motel, but save room for a special Shabbat chocolate chip pancake at camp.)

2pm – 4pm – Rest and change/pack for afternoon activities at camp.

4pm – 10 pm - Swimming, boating, camp crafts, dinner, Havdalah, campfire, skits and singing

Sunday

Before 9am – Pack-up

9am – 1pm – Activities at camp including flag raising, breakfast, avodah (see how Tavor campers work and maintain their camp), fruit picking (out of camp) and lunch.

1pm – Begin the journey home. (For those families attending the July Family Camp, you are welcome to share in the visitor's day activities which last until 4pm)
